ORDER

This matter is before the court sua sponte. On April 2, 2007 this court issued an Order stating that based on news accounts of the World Trade Organization’s March 30, 2007 decision that the U.S. ban on offshore Internet gambling is in violation of the WTO Treaty, “the court finds that further briefing on this issue may be in order.” The court set a briefing schedule for any party wanting to comment further on this issue.

Through an unfortunate mistake in the Clerk’s Office, this Order was inadvertently not docketed.

The court will therefore reissue that Order with a new briefing schedule. Parties are under no obligation to supplement their previous briefs. However, if they elect to do so, the supplement should not repeat previously argued points, but should address the effect, if any, of the World Trade Organization’s March 30, 2007 decision.

Accordingly,

If any defendant wishes to further brief the issue of the dismissal of the Indictment based on the World Trade Organization Treaty, such briefs shall be filed no later than May 2, 2007. The government’s response shall be filed no later than May 9, 2007. Any reply shall be filed no later than May 16, 2007.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
